

Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst
German Academic Exchange Service

International Alumni Conference

Development Cooperation in Times of Multiple Crisis

Oct. 16 – 20, 2023

Application form

Please submit your application in English via E-mail to Dr. Gabriele Bäcker (iee-conference@rub.de) by 21st of May 2023.

Personal data:

Surname:

Given name(s):

Sex:

Date of birth (dd/mm/yyyy):

Nationality:

Current residence country:

Current employer:

Professional position:

German programme and university in which you studied:

Year of graduation:

Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst
German Academic Exchange Service

Letter of motivation (required; max. 400 words): Please describe your professional affiliation and role. Do you experience effects of multiple crises in your work? If yes, how is your work affected? What are your expectations on the conference discussions in relation to your work challenges?

Workshop topic you are specifically interested in:

- The support of Democracy, Human Rights and Civil Society in Times of Multiple Crises
- Private Sector Development in Times of Multiple Crises
- International Economic Cooperation in Times of Multiple Crises
- Poverty Reduction and Food Security in Times of Multiple Crises

Short report of 3-5 pages (optional; applicants submitting a report are treated preferentially in the selection of participants)

If you are submitting a report, please do so by sending it as a separate attachment to your application e-mail and tick the box below. Also let us know below if you are interested in presenting your input in the brief format of a five-minute pitch during the workshop sessions. For preparation of the report, please follow the instructions in the call.

- I'm submitting a report on my professional experience in relation to the conference topic
- I'm interested in presenting my report during the corresponding workshop

Participation in career development workshop:

The last conference day offers the opportunity for participation in a workshop "job-search and the application process". The workshop addresses Alumni as well as current students of the cooperating programmes and might be of interest especially for those Alumni in an early stage of their career. Alumni are also invited to share their experience with the reintegration after completion of their studies in Germany. Please indicate below if you are interested in taking part in this workshop.

- I'm interested in taking part in the workshop "job-search and the application process" on Friday, 20 Oct 2023